“ I genuinely don't know what to say other than I loved Fate. We traveled together a lot and shared so many great moments together. He and I certainly consumed our fair share hot wings over the years. You will be missed always, brother.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of Fate. My husband worked with Fate and Moose at Red Onion State Prison. I lost my husband two years ago, but I can remember the stories he told of the fellowship he shared with Fate and Moose. I know it was a brotherhood that could never be broken and he loved you both. Please know that the entire family is in my prayers and I will continue to lift you up. Jackie is completely healed and waiting in Heaven for others to come. Maybe he and Fate are having their own little reunion right now. May God be with you and bless you always in the days ahead.

“ In 2014 I went through 5 weeks of training and Fate was one of the people providing me feedback and his feedback to me showed that he genuinely cared about me facilitating with Fidelity. This was also the first time I met him so I kept calling him Nate so one day he told me to call him Nate Fate Fate was truly a very nice, caring and outstanding person. DOC has taken a great lost. RIP Nate Fate!

“ Fate was a leader in the DOC who led by example, inspired others to adopt and own the vision that has made a significant impact on the lives of those who need help to be better! He was so proud of his family and the great people his children had grown into! I can never remember him saying a critical word about anyone. I knew him through work but I knew there was so much more to him that made him the great father and husband he was! Rest In Peace Brother.

“ I have known Fate for the better part of 20 years and can say that he was a fine man and father. He helped me coach the soccer team at Ridgeview for the better part of the first 4 seasons. He did this in a volunteer role and never wanted anything other than to mentor the boys and spend time with Alex. The world has lost a special person and he will be missed.
