“To the Powell Family, Angela, Sandy, Judy, and Richard (purposely not mentioning the third Powell brother):Larry was my oldest friend, after moving-in as my neighbor at the age of 4. He supported me with work during my darkest days of despair. He was a true friend, and I will miss him greatly. To Vernon: My deepest condolences. Although I didn't agree with Larry's life choices, I never condemned him out of respect for his decisions to follow his heart. I'm certain you will miss his companionship, as much as I will miss his friendship.”

“Angela, so sorry to hear of the passing of your Dad. I hope both you and Sandy can hold onto the memories of the good times. Life is so full of twists and turns. Paths change, people amaze and disappoint each other at the same time. I only met Your Dad once, when you were a cute little girl. But one thing I know about him, he helped create a beautiful young woman and for that alone, he accomplished greatness. Our prayers go out to you all during this time of mourning. Audrey and Kim”
