“Mammaw Belle, I love u so much. Staying with you when I was little was the greatest thing for me. I always loved being there, and talking to you and you taught me so much. I loved surprising you at church on sundays and the our lunch dates at Hardees or Long Johns. You were such an incredible woman. Your faith in the Lord was amazing. You never had a ba word to say about anything. You were one of the strongest women I've ever met. I pray that I can grow to have your strength and be just half the woman you were. Thank you for everything you taught me and dont forget the little bald headed men. Ha! I love you more than you ever knew, but I know that now you are So happy. I know that you are in heaven looking down on us. You will never be forgotten. You truly defined a good christian woman and defined what a true lady was. Have fun up there. Kiss my papows for me. I will miss you everyday and will always remember the things you taught me. I love you with all my heart. It hurt so bad to let you go, but I know you are now with our Lord and savior! Have a ball and one day we will meet again. With all the love I pocesss , Jesss”
