

Al Ray Fine

July 26, 1931 - December 21, 2025

Al Ray Fine, age 94, of Clintwood, Virginia, passed away peacefully on December 21, 2025, surrounded by the love of his family.

Born in Clinchco, Virginia, Al was the son of Wesley Carl “Goose” Fine, Sr. and Esther (Selfe) Fine. A proud son of southwest Virginia, he remained deeply connected to his hometown throughout his long and meaningful life.

Al honorably served his country in the United States Army, where he demonstrated remarkable bravery and resilience. He was the recipient of the Purple Heart, awarded in recognition of the sacrifices he made in defense of his nation. His service remained a point of quiet pride, and his courage leaves an enduring legacy for the generations that follow him.

Al as a devoted father to Glen Fine and his wife Nicola, to Brenda Gauss, and to his late son Neil Fine, whom he now joins in eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his siblings: Wesley Carl Fine, Jr., Inez DeFazio, and Kitty Anderson.

He is also lovingly remembered by his special friends, Cheryl and Amy, whose companionship brought comfort, joy, and warmth to his later years. Their bond was a treasured part of his life.

Those who knew Al will remember him for his love of the ocean, sailing, and fishing. Whether navigating the open waters or finding peace along the shoreline, he found joy and freedom in the outdoors. His stories, strength, and gentle humor enriched the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Al lived with quiet dignity and a deep appreciation for life's simple and meaningful moments. He will be remembered with love and gratitude by his family, friends, and all who crossed his path.

A celebration of his life will be held at a later date.

May his memory be a blessing.
