Amber Star Parrigan

July 30, 1980 - March 4, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of a beloved woman whose presence brought warmth, strength, and kindness to all who knew her. She was a devoted mother, a cherished daughter, a loving sister, a caring niece, and a loyal best friend. Her life was a beautiful reflection of compassion, resilience, and unconditional love.

As a mother, she gave endlessly—offering guidance, comfort, laughter, and unwavering support. Her children were the center of her world, and she worked tirelessly to nurture, protect, and encourage them to become the best versions of themselves.

As a daughter, she carried deep respect and love for her family, always honoring the values she was raised with. As a sister, niece, and cousin, she shared countless memories, offering both strength and humor during life's ups and downs. Her family could always count on her for a listening ear, a comforting hug, or a moment of laughter when it was needed most. To her friends, she was more than just a companion—she was family. As a best friend, she stood by those she loved through every season of life, celebrating their joys and supporting them through their struggles.

Her loyalty, honesty, and generous spirit made her someone people could always rely on. She will be remembered for her kind heart, her infectious smile, and the way she made people feel seen, valued, and loved. Though her time with us feels far too short, the memories she created and the love she shared will live on in the hearts of those who knew her.

She leaves behind a family and circle of friends who will forever cherish her memory and honor the legacy of love she built throughout her life. Amber loved her children more than life itself; she was incredibly proud of them and cherished every moment she had with them.

She was in a loving relationship with Jarrett Johnson and couldn't have been happier; you could see the glow surrounding her. Amber wasn't just a wonderful mother; she was an amazing person. She cared and poured her heart into every person she met; she had a way of making you feel like you were the only person in her world.

She always loved every child she met, as her own. She will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.

She was united in heaven with her beloved grandparents, Maston and Bonnie Stanley, and loving aunt, Elaine Bowen.
