

Barbara Susie Fletcher

May 5, 1949 - November 7, 2023

Barbara “Susie” Fletcher passed away on Tuesday, November 7th, 2023 at Pikeville Medical Center at the age of 74. She is preceded in death by her mother and father, Wesley and Francis Farmer, brother James Farmer, and husband Roy Fletcher. Survivors include her brother, Bill Farmer, sister Shirley Goodson, son Jason Fletcher, two grandsons Max and Mason Fletcher, and special nephew Ronnie Fletcher.

Susie was a lifelong resident of Dickenson County and graduated from Haysi High School in 1967. She spent much of her life as a caretaker and homemaker, and the love for her family, friends, and kitty never went unnoticed.

A celebration of life service will be conducted Sunday November 19, 2023 at 2:00pm with Clergyman Gary Hill Officiating in the Mullins Funeral Home Chapel. Susie’s remains will be interred privately in the Rose hill cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital to honor Susie’s wishes

“ So sorry for your loss. She was very kind and helpful to my mother, Nell Wright. She cleaned my mother’s house for several years when my mother was getting too elderly to do it herself She was always kind to us.
