“ "I hope you all know how much Ben meant to us all. He was more than a neighbor, he was like family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all and God is with you always. In your grief he will comfort you. If He leads you to it, He will lead you through it. This poem helped me when I lost my Mother. I hope in some way it will comfort you as well. Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glint on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you wake in the morning hush, I am the swift, uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft starlight at night. Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep. (Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die! Mary Frye"
