“To the Lyle Family- Betty must have been a pretty awesome lady! We are basing it on the fact she has a pretty awesome daughter in Coach Harding! We guess her grandkids are okay too :) Our deepest sympathies, Christian love and heartfelt prayers go out to all of you. The Turner Ashby High School Lady Knights Basketball Program”

“So sorry for the loss of a wonderful wife to Lurton, a great mom to Joe, Tracy, and Elizabeth. Not to mention the grandchildren whom she adored. No words can express how she will be missed but the life she led, the laughter she brought, and the memories she leaves behind speaks wonders. We will miss her dearly. Our hearts are heavy but at the same time, how blessed we feel that she touched our lives. May God continue to touch each of the family with his special love and hold each of you in his loving arms until we are each called to be with our Lord in Heaven. Hugs, Nola and Ron”

“ "Clintwood will be a less fun place without Betty. Your family will feel the void for years to come. She was completely comfortable with herself and we all loved her so much. My Mother will be so sad to hear of her passing. I love all you so much and my heart breaks for all. She wasn't just one in a million...she was one of a kind. Thank you Lord for sharing her with us."
