“ You are missed, Bobby. We'll always remember you and the gentle, authentic person you were. I'll miss having a friend I knew truly cared about me and a person to laugh with.
Until we meet again, my friend.

“ I luv you so much Little Brother. I have so many memories of you. The best one is when you were driving semi's & you were in my area & I came & got you to come to my house & stayed all night. We had so much fun talking bout things, laughing & joking around to. I sure miss you. Luv from your sister Kelly Jo Fite

Just now seeing Bobby's passing. I didn't know about his illness. So sad about his passing and his family's lost of a well liked and all around good person. I knew him from school and seen him through the years after. He was still the same friendly, jolly Bobby.
