“We have loved Bud and Ruby for years and have many fond memories of them both around Home and at the Campground and least we forget the hunting trip with Johnny Mack and Caroline Yates, and our Grandson Alexander Dalton Mullins. We always looked forward to seeing them when we would go out town and had to get a hug and see how they all were. Bud would relish us with tells about him and Kens Grandpa Basil Barton. Now they will wait for us all in heaven so we can be reunited again. Love to Ruby, Duane, and all the family. Sorry we were unable to attend his services due to illness.”

“To All the Family of BUD DEEL , Mr. Bud , Was a very loving & GOD LOVING MAN . He was a role model for many young folks, the LOVE he showed for GOD ,& His Lovely WIFE RUBY. I was in his company a few times with the two of them & his sister Minnie & Her family . They were a joy to be with. I was truly blessed to share a couple meals with them, when their great niece Meagan was married . He blessed the meals & I had such blessing to be in their company & sharing our food . We spotted some banana pudding & were afraid we were going to miss out on it , so I went back & got us some to eat before we ate . He & Ruby got a big kick out of me getting their b. pudding to save for them. Rest in peace my friend & many HUGS TO YOU AUNT RUBY , LOVE YOU ,Midge's PAT”

“My deepest sympathies to you all. Bud was a wonderful, caring, and strong man. My fondest memories of Bud are of him laughing. He was always telling a story about something cute or funny one of his grandchildren said or did. I know he will be greatly missed, for he is greatly loved. Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; A time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; A time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; A time of war, and a time of peace.”

“So sad to hear about Bud's passing. He always had a smile and a kind word when I would see him. As a boy growing up I always loved going to the motorcycle shop. we bought our first motorcycle there, and started my love for the sport, watching him climb the hill beside the shop. Many fond memories and he was always a gentleman.”
