“ I really didn't know Burette myself. I am friends with her great niece, Tammy Branham. Tammy would tell me how much her Aunt meant to her, how she enjoyed so much their conversations and what a wonderful friend she was. I'm praying God brings peace and comfort to all her family.

The moment I met Ms Dye, I felt like I had known her all my life. She had the sweetest personality and took great pride in all her children and yes, she considered her grandchildren as her children too. She will be greatly missed.
