“Mildred, Sharon and Family, I hated to hear about Uncle Calvin's fatal accident. I remember him as a child and I don't think I ever saw him without a smile on his face or laughing about something. He had such a pleasant personality! I am sure Mom in heaven has welcomed her older brother with open arms. May the Lord shower you with HIS strength, comfort and love now and for the future. Cherish the memories you have of him and he will live forever in your hearts,”
