

Carl Dean "Moe" Bradford

June 1, 1957 - January 1, 2023

On Sunday, January 1, 2023 Carl Dean "Moe" Bradford, born to Valice and Bertha Bradford, passed away peacefully at his home in Clintwood, Virginia. Dads are someone to look up to, someone to follow and admire, someone to be proud of and brag about, someone to laugh and cry with, learn and respect. Someone to listen and talk to, someone you try to impress and sometimes, rebel against. Carl's been that dad to many and he will be missed by many more.

Carl is survived by:

His children: Carla Bradford and Emily and Jared Arledge

Grandchildren: Mia Rogers, Corey and Cody Bradford

Brothers and Sisters: Evelyn Garman, Patricia and Michael Wheatley, Deborah and Phil Dotson, and Richmond and Eileen Bradford.

Many, many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

It was Carl's wishes to be cremated with no service and to be spread at his most sacred places.

Mullins Funeral Home and Staff are serving the Bradford family. Online condolences may be made online at www.mullinsfuneralhome.net.

“ Great memories of growing up with Carl and the Bradford family in Indiana. Carl treated me more like a brother than a friend and was there when you needed and you didn't even have to ask. Great times that I'll never forget. MY condolences to all the Bradford family.

Thanks, he had a huge heart and would help anybody if he could. I'm proud to be able to say that's my daddy, he was always there for me all my life and now it seems like it's a bad bad dream I'm not waking up from “ Saddened to hear the news of Uncle Carl's passing. Growing up on the Indiana farm, Carl was like my big brother among my many Aunts, Uncles and Cousins. I cherish the memories of our times working the farm, running the creek banks, playing in the barn...corn cob fights. Carl had a huge heart, loved and had a soft spot for his family and friends. Prayers and Condolences!

I'd say mamaw was beyond happy to get her baby up there with her and you're right about that. He was one of a kind and I'm already missing him terribly even tho it's not completely hit me yet

“ My big hearted uncle Carl. I hope grandma and grandpa, and all of the family members who went before you, are there to greet you. Forever implanted in my visions is fireflies and your smile, while lifting me up toward the open Indiana summer skies. Fly high, see you when I see you. ❤️

“ His laugh is something I will never forget. It was laugh that came from his belly and just made you laugh too. His hugs were so tight and strong, you definitely knew he wanted you to feel loved. While living in VA as a child, I had the opportunity to see him daily. I will forever cherish those memories. After moving back to Indiana my visits with Uncle Carl became few. Yet, I knew he always loved me. I can't begin to imagine the family reunion in heaven. I am sure my dad (Bill) was waiting to greet him along with all the others that went way to soon. Prayers for his children, grandchildren, siblings, nieces and nephews. We love you.

Thanks Beth.. he loved you too and it made him so happy to see you that time you'd stopped in on your way home from pigeon forge maybe, I can't remember but that made his day that he got to see you
