“I've known Hank for 30 years. He did our drywall in Whitesburg in our then new home. Over the years, we have talked to each other many times. As the years passed we realized that we had grandchildren in common, the children of his daughter Tara Danielle Gibson. The grandchildren are Jacob Andrew Hunter Gibson and Skylar Jennings Sturgill. Tara, Jacob and Skylar lived with Hank for several months a few years ago where they got to know each other as parent, daughter and grandchildren. I'm sad that Hank's family didn't see fit to include his daughter and her children in his obituary. Even though Hank didn't marry Tara's mom, it didn't make her any less his daughter. He knew Tara belonged to him. Don't hurt the children because of the sins of the parents. I was your friend Hank and I liked you. I'm sorry that you had to go this quick. I know that you enjoyed life to the fullest.”

“So sorry Ms. French for your loss. Hank did love his mother, with that being said, he was the meanest and most selfish man. All is forgiven, but not forgotten. It is called karma.”

“Hank was a great friend with a personality that would light up a room when he walked in. He observed people and had a kind word for everyone. I met him at the bluegrass dances and what a dancer he was! It will be sad going back to the dances and not see his smiling face there with a kind and encouraging word. Rest in peace my sweet friend until we meet again.”
