“ Uncle Carter made me feel like the Most Loved person ever whenever I visited my grandparents' farm in the mountains of SW VA. As a girl he would wake me early to go out and feed, milk and collect eggs. He taught me about Granddaddy Long Legs spiders and how they would point the way to go find the cows in the afternoon and then he would take me with him to find them. He could kill a copperhead with a thrown rock. He gave me piggy back rides back from the barn when this chubby flat lander child was tired. He even hooked the horse up to the sled in the summer just because I wanted to ride down the hill. He always had time for me and my silly city girl questions about life on the farm. Never made me feel stupid for asking. He let me feed baby lambs bottles and showed me my first naked baby bunnies. He was such a wonderful human being and loved by all who know him. Especially me. My heart is breaking for my sweet Aunt Susie and their daughter Loma. I know he is with Jesus and that Grandpa and Grandma, my mom and her sister Elsie and brothers Archie and Garner welcomed him with loving and open arms. I sure will miss him... until we meet again. 💔
