“ I want to send by deepest condolences and heartfelt love and concern to Arnold, Kathy, and to all the rest of Charolette's family. I was surprised by her homegoing to Heaven so suddenly, but was told she had been sick for awhile. I grew up with Charolette in school and in church, and she was always like my sister, in the natural and in the spirit. I will never forget the precious, surprise visit that she and Arnold gave me when I lived in Newport News, Va. She will always be alive, in my heart, as a precious person whose friendship I always cherished. Now she can rejoice with Jesus and the angels in Heaven until we see her again. I am sorry that I will not be able to attend the services on Friday since I need to travel to Newport News, Va. to visit family and a dear friend who is very ill in hospice. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Lavonne Baker.
