“Kim, Shanghai, and family, There is no rhyme or reason nor any sense of logic for the tragic, untimely death of your precious daughter. God had a plan for taking her, unknown to us. May He comfort you in this time of grief. My sincere condolences, Danny L Edwards”

“Dear Family&Friends, as we come together lets celebrate the life that was lived. Chasity was an amazing young woman. She lived a life most of us only dreamed of! Most of us girls had dreams of going to college, marriage and having children. But I remember Chasity saying with eyes light up like a christmas tree "Im gettn outta here. Im moving to Florida and Im gonna live an exciting life". And she did just that! I know that marriage&children were in her plan later but first she wanted to LIVE and travel and met new people and try new things...and she did! Chasity was a go getter and she was willing to work to get herself where she wanted to be. I admire her for that. Chasity, was one of a kind and alothough she had an exterior tht was somewhat hard to crack, inside she was a good girl with a good heart and she was passionate about life in general. May her soul be at peace...God Bless her family&friends&may they each be blessed with peace beyond understanding during this time."
