“ My heart is broken. Christy was one of the very first childhood friends I ever had and no matter how much time passed between seeing each other or talking we picked up like we'd done it daily. She was a true lifelong friend and those are few and far between. She left a lasting impression on everyone she met. That beautiful smile and infectious laugh could make the darkest days bright. I could write a book on what a wonderful person she was, but there is no need, because if you knew her, you already know how wonderful she was, and if you didn't then you sure missed out. Rest easy sweet friend and know you will be greatly missed and never forgotten. I bet that angel choir sure sounds even more awesome this morning with you leading it.
