

Cindy Ann Stanley

March 25, 1969 - December 16, 2023

Cindy Ann (Collier) Stanley, 54, passed away on December 16 at her home surrounded by her family. Cindy was a member of Sandlick Presbyterian church, a 1987 graduate of John I Burton High school, and 2003 graduate of Virginia Intermont College. While in high school, Cindy participated in cheerleading and tennis where she made friends that would last a lifetime. Cindy was devoted to her son, Seth, and her daughter, Maggie. She never missed any of their games and was always present for all of their achievements. She was loved by all of their friends growing up. If you were friends with Maggie or Seth, you always knew that Cindy would have breakfast made for you in the morning. She became a second mom to many of their friends. Cindy had an infectious smile that was contagious and the most beautiful laugh. She was a compassionate soul and treated all of her animals like they were her children, especially, her dog Tera. Cindy will be greatly missed by everyone around that was a part of her life.

Cindy was preceded in death by her grandfather, James Riggs, her uncle, James "Jimmy" Riggs, and brother-in-law, Rick Fleming.

She is survived by her loving husband, Jared Stanley; daughter, Maggie Brooke Buchanan; son, Seth Evan Collier, parents; Lynda and Arthur (Pedie) Poston, sister; Janis Tester (Dave Tester), Dana Fleming (Brandon Bolling), Rebecca Williams (Chad Williams) Nieces, Jennifer Tester, Sydney Mullins (Weston Mullins), Hannah Kegley (Tyler Kegley), Emilee Williams. Nephews, Danny Tester, Dean Tester (Adriana Tester), Sam Williams. Also, two great-nieces and eight great-nephews and many loving friends.

Celebration of life service will be conducted Wednesday December 20, 2023 where the family will receive friends at 2:00 pm until service time at 4:00 pm in the Mullins Funeral Home Chapel with clergy David Cummins officiating.

Mullins Funeral Home and Staff are serving the Stanley family. Online condolences may be made at www.mullinsfuneralhome.net

“ I think often of how we used to play together as kids. You’d be the teacher and I’d be the student. We’d be Sandy from Grease. We’d be cheerleaders. We’d be on double dates. We’d roller skate around the neighborhood. Thank you for being my friend. I hope you’re having as much fun in heaven.
