“Regina and the family, I am so sorry for your loss. Having gone thru it last year with my husband, we still grieve but have many happy memories to help. I hope you and the family can remember the good times and the good memories. Thank you for joining us last year at the reunion and I feel special that I got to enjoy both of your company when we ate together. He sure enjoyed talking about geneology and helped us tremendously when we visited him a few years ago. Praying for all of you and may peace be with you.”
