“ I wished that I Would have known that he had passed. I hadn't seen him in years but he talked to me about a year ago on facebook..he used to live right across from me in Riners Trailer Court. This is when he was living at home. I was younger than him.,but the girls that were his age went crazy over him because they liked his smile and he would always say hello when you would see him..but things change in all of our lives and he said he was married again to a wonderful school teacher ..He always said he loved her so much...but I know he said he had lost some of the memories from years ago..I am so sorry and i would have paid my respects, but one thing i knew, he loved his wife and pooh bear..Praying for all of you and the grandchildren too..We will all get to see him again one day when Jesus takes us home..
