“So sorry to hear of Burns' passing. We had a lot of fun at Bear Pen when we were young and innocent. While he was in the Air Force I was in the Army and we met once at Fort McClellan, AL. All we had time for was a quick "hi" and I regret not taking longer to reacquainted. A good friend gone to soon. Prayers for his family.”

“I knew Dave during his years in Texas. We were professional colleagues and I considered him a friend. I remember visiting his office many times and seeing the picture of the homestead cabin on his wall. He shared some wonderful stories from his youth. He also let me borrow a book of stories written by family and friends about life in the mountains. How enchanting they were. They were wonderful stories and Dave was a wonderful man. I spoke with him once or twice since he returned to Virginia. He loved the mountains and enjoyed returning to a simpler time. He will be missed.”

“Dear, dear brother, I did not get to see you during your last days here on earth, but looking at your picture brings back the image of our dear father, Johnny Kendrick. I look forward to our reunion someday, and believe with all my heart that we will each other again. And, you know, Mavis will take good care of Lilly. Love, your sister, Bettyand I didn't mean to knock you out with that sweet potato regardless of what Mavis says!”
