“ The memories of Delian that we shared from 2012 very Honest fun loving memories of her life long time past. Things about Clintwood in the old days that I would have never had known without meeting Della My mom and myself had a awesome time going over to visit Della and here new stories about different things times everything was new to me there I had my mother Lorraine Roy I was caring for My mother for 15 years And my husband had gotten sick also lost my mom in August of 2012 and then I had lost Aaron in January of 2013 then my son Jason had come up in April of 2013 with My granddaughter Lacey which was 8 months old and she was the brightest little redhaired and blue eyed little girl I had ever seen she was everything I could have even dreamed of. Well that was the beginning of Lacey meeting Delia they were 2 peas in a pod little Lacey the little Blue eyed beautiful little girl she Was everything to Delia. We lived there for 4 years We ended up moving in 2015 to Charleston South Carolina with a awesome man from Clintwood Virginia Paul Wallace So now every time I had went up there I would stop in and see my friend Delian to check to see if she was doing ok chat and make sure everything is going OK bring home some corn or whatever she's got she has always been my sweet lady I've always loved her to death and have never forgotten she will never be forgotten in my heart she'll always be there for me and I will see her again one day God-bless her Laurie, Lacey
