“ We talked on the phone every other day for 15 years and it's heartbreaking to know I can't just pick up the phone and call him. I don't believe that this pain will get easier but I'm grateful that he was apart of my life for as long as he was. Devron was so smart and open minded, I can't think of a time I called with a question about something random that he would already know about and have an opinion on. I'm just starting to realize how many people he connected with and how much good he brought into the world. I will never meet anyone like him and will hold every memory I have of him as tight as I can.

“ One time Devon made a Craigslist advertisement for a Baywatch themed pinball machine/ custom painted Harley Davidson combination. He put my name and contact information on the advertisement and listed the price as “I just want it off my property”. It was the most horrible, hilarious month of my life. I have never had, nor ever will have another friend like him. Rest In Peace.

“ I could share a million stories. Laughs, cries, things I can't remember at times but some of the greatest things in life are unplanned and you were for sure that for me. I was lucky to not only know you as a friend but as more than that for awhile. Blackbird...all your life, you've been waiting for this moment to arise.

“ Devron has been one of my closest friends for about 12 years. Every single day this man inspired and encouraged me in many aspects of my life. Devron was probably the most intelligent person I've ever met. He taught me everything I know about computers and programming. We would make funny games and ridiculous Discord bots. He changed my life in many ways. Things will never be the same without him around. I love you brother, rest in peace.

“ Devron was such a fine young man, and my family and I are so sorry to hear of his passing. We knew Devron because he was in school with our children, as well as JROTC, PACE, Rocketry Club and many other activities. Devron was very intelligent, talented, witty, honest, loyal, brave and above all, he was just very kind. He was the type of young man that would give his own shirt of his own back if it would help someone. My family and I are keeping Devron's entire family, as well as all of his friends in our prayers, because this is a young man that will certainly be missed by many! May the Lord bless each of you with peace and comfort.

“ Devron and I have been friends my entire adult life. I love him like a brother and I will miss him every day for the rest of my life, I have shared countless laughs and ridiculous business ideas with him. Buongiorno Digiorno is our best and was gonna take us to the top!

“ I worked with Devron at Meadowview Marriott in 2012 and have remembered to this day how positive, friendly and capable Devron was. Considering I have worked at 7 Marriott properties and seen countless Employees, it says much to Devrons' quality as a person that he still sticks out in my mind as such a gifted person. Much love to the family. Jim Sutton
