“Our hearts are filled with such sadness at Dianna's passing. She was a beautiful soul and loved by so many. It is certainly like losing our own. We have all been family for most of our lives. Tonight at Dianna's service you will hear wonderful memories about her and you will hear her laughter...keep those memories and her music in your hearts. Praying for your peace and knowing that your faith will sustain you through any storm We love you all.”

“My sister, my beautiful sister, we will miss you so much. Now you are an angel in heaven and free from pain. Your family will now know you are in a better place without doctors and no more surgeries. You are no longer with us, but so much better off than we are that are left here on earth. Run, jump, laugh, enjoy heaven and new friends. We love you.”

“To the family of Dianna Lynn Farmer Mullins: Words cannot express how saddened I am at the loss of your beloved Dianna. She was a warm & caring person who always had a smile & a hug for those in need. I recall an old Irish quote: " Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, loves leaves a memory no one can steal." Dianna will forever be in my heart.”
