“Aunt Dianne, There is no one quite like you and there never will be. You are irreplaceable on Earth. But I'm sure you've lit up heaven by now with your smile. Love, your neice, Rachael”

“I am so sorry that I could not be there with my Uncle Donald during this difficult time, and to say goodbye to Dianne until we meet again. 2 Corinthians 1 v 4-6 He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When others are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us. You can be sure that the more we suffer for Christ, the more God will shower us with His comfort through Christ. So when we are weighed down with troubles, it is for your benefit and salvation! For when God comforts us, it is so that we, in turn, can be an encouragement to you. Then you can patiently endure the same things we suffer.”

“Dee I miss you already. Not only were you my sister, you were my friend. I'm gonna miss your smiles and those long talks we had. I know you are in Heaven with mom and dad and with Jesus. I can't wait to see you again and talk like we did here. I loved you so much and I know you knew that. Rest in the arms of Jesus. You are with the angels now. I love you my sister. Life won't be the same.”

“Dee, I am going to miss you so much. You were the best sister anyone could ever want. I wish you were still here but I know you are in Heaven now with mom and dad having the time of your life. Life here on Earth was rough for you. I wish I could have taken all your pain away. You have two of the best sons in this world. You would have been so proud of them today. Go and enjoy all the good things Heaven has to offer and one glorious day we will meet again. I love you and all ways will. Your loving sister Glenda.”
