“ I had the pleasure of meeting and staying at Carl and Creasies home when Samantha Mike Jax and I went down to visit Sam's family. Carl tried to convince me I could see the man in the picture if I looked at it long enough...he shared his life stories..more with Mike than me....took us to his 'love of his lifes' cabin..he was soo proud..Im lucky I met Carl n Creasie❤️ my heart breaks for her long lonely days and nights..God bless you Carl..keep watch over the holler and your babies in Pennsylvania..Take care sweet Creasie❤️

“ Lots of memories visiting Creasie & Carl when I was young. He was always welcoming and joking. I remember him returning from work black as coal, with his lunch pail and Creasie greeting him with a cup of coffee. They truly loved each other and I know his passing will be very hard on her.
Prayers for the family 🙏
RIP Uncle Carl

A great man and uncle, he will be greatly missed. I was around him as a kid, but didn't really get to know him until I became an adult and had my son Cody. We had a lot of good stories and memories with him.

Great memories with Creasie, Carl, Rodney and Carroll. Carl was always so hospitable when we visited several times a year. Will miss his humor and good common sense. RIP
