

Donald B Hendricks

August 29, 1931 - November 19, 2025

Donald B. Hendricks, 94, of Wise, Virginia, passed away peacefully on November 19, 2025, surrounded by family and loved ones. Donald was born on August 29, 1931, in Minnesota to Agnes and Frank Hendricks. He attended the University of Indiana Technological Institute in Fort Wayne, Indiana, majoring in Mechanical Engineering, which served him in his never-ending problem-solving, and after serving in the Navy on many abroad assignments. Don was always willing to have fun and go until he dropped, and was loved and appreciated by those around him in his vast church and civic communities. Don became a man of spirituality and religion, earning his certification credentials in Theology while living in Tennessee, and was known for his engaging smile, humor, and enjoyed sharing his stories of his life and wisdom to all.

He is survived by her four children from his first marriage, Terry, Cheryl, Thomas, and Pam. Donald also has two grandchildren, Matt and Kyle, and one great-grandchild, Keely, and a brother, Larry and his wife, Sandy, living in California, along with many more nieces and nephews. He is also survived by many of his wife Norma's family members, whom he was instrumental in their lives for over 30 years while living in Virginia and Tennessee.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two siblings, Howard and Judy Liverman.