“ Life is hard sometimes for us all. Unfortunately, Arthur went through more than his fair share of hard times and heartbreak. He knew the consequences of bad decisions and how it felt to get caught in the wrong place at the wrong time. He was kind enough to share a few stories of his experiences with me. That was his way of trying to keep me from making those same wrong decisions myself. That was his way of showing he cared. He had a huge heart but at the same time wasn't one to hold back on letting someone know when he didn't care for them or their ways. I only wish that I had gotten to know him better and that I would have had more time with him here on Earth. Now...I have more in heaven to look forward to. Save me a smoke and I'll meet you on the outskirts of heaven one day. Until then I continue to pray for our souls. For now, my prayers are with my Aunt Joyce, her side of the family, and all that had the privilege of knowing Art. He was an amazing person with a good heart. He will be missed dearly!

Arthur was my brother-in-law for a long time. You are right he had a big heart and a big hug for the people he loved. My husband and I thought the world of Arthur and we know he felt the same. Prayers for all of his family.
