“Edith Faye was so special to my mother and daddy. My mother tells such funny and interesting stories of how they grew up and spent the night with each other never got in trouble. She loved Edith Faye as her own sister and always talks about her and Uncle John and Aunt Elsie with such love, She would love to be at the funeral services and say good by to her sister in person, but she knows that someday she and Edith Faye will have a lot of time to catch up when they meet in Heaven.”
