“ Edna Lambert my grandmothers sister lived to 102 the second oldest woman ever in clintwood virgina. She was the sweetest kindest soul. Even at 90 she was coherent enough to accept gifts and have conversations with me and family. I remember when I was 8 she gave me baby shoes she said one day I was very confused as a kid and tried to explain that I couldn't wear them. I like to think she knew that and meant something else. I miss her a lot she used to watch Scooby-Doo with me and eat her TV dinners. she had the longest hair even at 102 and died of old age. When asked how she lived so long she said "twinkies and fresh air". rest in peace to the lovelest little lady.
