“ Love you Aunt Emma. Remembering all the times as a little girl I held on to your skirt as we walked down the hill from Grandma Enzie’s house to your house so I could play with your girls. So many wonderful memories as a child at your house. So many fun memories with Tona as a teenager. You were a wonderful and beautiful person. Wishing your family comfort and peace in knowing you are with Jesus and reunited with Uncle Darvin and your two boys and two girls. You endured grief and sorrow with grace.
