Emory has been our neighbor for 40 years and was the greatest neighbor anyone could ever have. He was always smiling and a joy to be around. Emory was a pleasure to know, and he treated us as well as everyone else with great respect. He was a great friend to all our family and would take our dog for walks in the woods. We will truly miss working around the yard with him and having those great intellectual conversations. He was a very smart man. We loved and respected him so much and he was like one of the family. Emory and Hayden had some great conversations when Hayden would finish working around the yard. Hayden got to know what a great person Emory was and that is important for a young man to witness. With much gratitude and much love. Benny, Zeldra, Benjamin

“ I first met Emory when we both worked at old Mountain Ford Sales in the early 1960s. He was a good mechanic and an all-around good guy. We are so sorry to hear of his passing and send our sincere condolences.
