“ I am so sad to hear this news of your passing, I was excited to watch how God was going to turn your life into a walking miracle....well, I suppose he did, just not exactly the way my human brain thought he would. That's the amazing thing about God; his way of setting us free is far greater than ours. May your spirit soar and now you can truly be free. I will treat your children as my own and love them unconditionally. The great thing about heaven, is if we love the Lord, as I know you did, we will get to see all those who passed before us again in eternity! I believe that and I know you did too! May the Lord bless your generations left on this Earth abundantly.
