“ Pap, I miss you more and more every single day! I really thought we would have more time. The only thoughts that make times easier for me are knowing that you aren't in pain any longer and that you can now see the truths from which you were blinded from here on earth for so long. I now know that you know that I always have and will always love and respect you! You were an amazing father in law, friend, and mentor!

Love always,
