Fonnie and I were friends all our lives.....(more like sisters).....We talked and shared our feelings on the phone up to the last two days of her life.....I will never be the same without her in my life, but knowing we will meet again in Heaven is my comfort.....Joann Terry Dotson

“ Fonnie was a proper lady, everyday and in every situation. She was a gifted speaker and had a way of making you feel like you were there, for whatever event she was describing.

She was a light in my fathers life and she brought out the best in him. They were perfect for each other and I am glad that he passed first, for though I know she missed him every day, she was strong enough to gracefully carry on without him. If the roles were reversed, I fear what would have become of him, if he had to morn the loss of her.

Truly, a stronger Lady never existed than Fontilla.
