Frankie Gulley went home to be with Jesus on April 24, 2024 at the age of 72. She was born January 18, 1952 to the late Frank and Louise Gulley. Frankie grew up in Clinchco, a town she loved and never left. A loving mother, a remarkable woman, and a dedicated christian Frankie leaves many to cherish her memory. She had two sons Terry (Christina) Gulley of Dublin VA , Carlos (Pamela) Gulley of Christiansburg Va.; four brothers Larry (Linda) Gulley of Birmingham AL. Frank Gulley Jr. (Vickie) of El Paso TX., Billy ( Vendetta ) Gulley of Winston-Salem NC., Michael (Tauna) Gulley of Clintwood VA., and three Edna Gulley of Clinchco VA., Wanda Faye Gulley Abingdon VA, and Teresa Gulley of Charlotte NC. She also leaves seven grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

Frankie was very passionate about current news events and was resolute about watching MSNBC and often referred to herself as a “news freak”. She was a generous soul and loved giving to people and doing whatever she could to help her family. She was an active and devout member of Bethel Baptist Church and a former long time member of Haysi Church of Christ.
