“ Fred was a special person. My parents [Walter Lee and Dora Selina (Mullins) Browning] and my uncles Luther, Lloyd, George, and Rayden all thought the world of Fred. Fred always had something interesting to say. He will be greatly missed. I extend my thoughts and prayers to Mary and all the family. Wayne Browning

“ My earliest childhood memories all have Fred, Mary and their boys in them. Fred and our Daddy were life-long buddies, and Fred was with Daddy during his final days in this life. When Fred came to visit, he would give a quarter to whichever one of us kids would get him a cup of coffee. It was quite the fight and usually ended with Fred giving each of us a quarter. I share with my sister, Susan, the same vision of Fred and Daddy hunting and fishing in Heaven. Fred was a sweet, precious soul and will be dearly missed. God bless his family with peace and comfort in the knowledge that we will all be together again one day.

“ Fred was a most humble, decent and honorable person in every aspect of life. I treasure the many years of knowing and working with him.. He exemplified a strong work ethic, strength of character and high values. Fred always had the perfect smile and perfect story. His service to Dickenson County was exemplary. Fred and my Dad were friends form long ago. It has been our pleasure and an honor to have known him over the past forty years. Our prayers are with and for his precious family and many friends. May God bless you all.

“ Fred Cox was the nicest, sweetest and most humble person I ever met. A very down to earth person, he was the epitome of a good old country boy. My dad loved him like a brother, and they were always the truest of friends. Now they are together again hunting and fishing somewhere in heaven. My deepest sympathies and prayers go out to Mary, Paul, David, Daniel and all the grandchildren. I am going to miss my "uncle" Fred, but will always cherish the childhood memories I had of him and his wonderful family. May he rest in peace.
