“Daddy, I have so much to say to you since I didn't have the chance to say goodbye. I regret more than anyone will ever understand that you were alone when you passed but you will never be alone again. You will forever be with me and Cami. It still doesn't seem real that you are gone and I will never be able to talk to you again. I pray everyday that you will find me and come visit me but I know you aren't great with directions and are never in a hurry to get anywhere but don't be too stubborn to ask someone for directions Dad. I hope you are enjoying yourself and drinking all the Pepsi you can. I hope you know that I am so proud to be your daughter and that you taught me some great lessons along the way. The one that makes me laugh the most is when you told me I know you are gonna get into trouble you are my daughter but just "don't get caught!" I remember the day I outsmarted the police and got out of an underage drinking citation, I was young and stupid at the time but I couldn't wait to call you because I knew you would have been proud and we could have a good laugh about it. You also taught me to be a grounded and too not judge other people. You have also taught me the value of money and have always encouraged me and I always knew that no matter what I did you would always be there for me. I miss you dearly! Love, Heather”
