

Gletta Hayes

December 21, 1946 - December 4, 2024

Gletta Hayes unexpectedly passed through heaven's gates in Charleston, SC on December 4, 2024 surrounded by her family. She was born into a large loving family on December 21, 1946 to Connie and Nola Layne and spent most of her childhood growing up in Fairfax, VA where she met the love of her life Darrell Hayes. Even though they both were born and had deep roots in Southwest Virginia, God brought them together in Fairfax. When she saw Darrell out her window, she told her sister "That is the man I'm going to marry" and she did on January 28, 1967. They enjoyed 57 years of love, laughter, and happiness raising two sons Darrell Jr. (Kingsport, TN) and Billy Hayes (Los Angeles, CA) while creating a home that was always open to family and friends. She loved unconditionally, sacrificed for others, and was always joyfully providing for her loved ones.

Her laughter, love, and hugs will be missed by those who will always cherish her memories. Her legacy will be carried on by her husband Darrell Hayes, sons Darrell Hayes Jr and wife Tina, Billy Hayes, grandchildren Heather McMillan and husband Nick, Darrell Hayes III and wife Maria, Ethan Hayes, Bryce Hayes, Mackenzie Boone, and McKinley Czar, and great-grandchildren Titus and Camila Hayes.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at Mullins Funeral Home Chapel in Clintwood, VA on Saturday, December 14, 2024. The family will receive friends at 12 PM and the service will begin at 1 PM with Paul Wayne Moss officiating. Burial will follow at the Layne Cemetery in the Lick Fork Section of Clintwood, VA. Pallbearers will be family and friends.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Gletta and offer our deepest sympathies. I have many fond memories of her and of your family while we were all living in Tucson. She was very kind and quick to see the humor in everything. Her laugh was contagious. We wish you all well as you continue to adjust to life without her.
