“ My condolences to Peggy & Jimmy (my dear friends since age 4) and the rest of the family for the loss of such a sweet lady! I rem. as I was growing up in Clintwood, I thought of her as my "second mom" , she was very upfront and assertive, and didn't hesitate to scold me when needed to as she did the rest of her children. I recall going to church with the family and accidentally wearing mismatched shoes, when Gusta noticed she called me to the side and asked me about it in her motherly loving ways, ( of course me and Peggy was hoping now one would notice).. but it was all good. and I will always rem. her fussing at me when I didn't eat what she had cooked because I was such a fussy eater, she encouraged me to try different foods at her house, as I did, I learned the food she cooked was delicious, except for the "egg custard pie" I never would try it.

I know growing up , us kids probably got on her nerves, but she would just shake her head and go on! Many times I rem. Gusta sitting down to play Monopoly & other board games with us as we had no electronics back then.. There are so many other memories I could share and it was always fun as I still rem. her laughter when playing those games.

She was always helpful and kind to me as well to her family, and I will always rem going to her home and feeling welcomed there. A sense of being cared for, A sense of peace through Gusta's presences and her love.

Rest in Peace beautiful lady! Till we meet again!
