“I am so sorry to have heard of Harry's passing. You girls had two wonderful parents. I will always remember those days at Dyer's Chapel and how much their teachings meant there. God has blessed you and will throughout the coming days. My love to you all.”

“Sandra and Teresa, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I was happy to call your Dad a friend for over 50 years. One way to look at it is your Mom and Dad are together again, and forever. God Bless the Family.”

“Will always remember those long and storied tennis matches with Harry and friends at UVA-Wise. Harry had the best cross court angles and low passing shots at the net. Always a gentleman and with a grin on his face. He will be missed.”
