“ Great Grandma,

I am thankful I was able to meet you and spend the time I had with you while I could. You were strong, independent, and a loving person. Anyone would aspire to be like you and have your strength. You lived a long and amazing life leaving behind an amazing family with you. You will be loved and cherished throughout time, forever in our memories. With love,

“ Great Grandma-

I am fortunate enough to have been able to spend as much time as I did with you.

Bringing our family together, naming frogs outside your house Steve with me and learning some of your favorite words. You will forever live on in many hearts and in my memory. Thank you.

Until we all meet again and then proceed to plan everyones meals- (I will await your biscuits and gravy). :)

*With much love,
Zachary*

“ My wonderful memory of Hazel is we share the same birthday. And yes, she had an amazing banana pudding recipe that everyone loves and wants the recipe. We would talk, we would always have something to talk about and our conversations would be long conversations. She would always say as we were finishing breakfast, "What are we having for lunch?" and than after finishing lunch, she would ask, "What are we having for dinner?" She was the best! Hazel will never be forgotten and will always be in my heart Love, Rachael Farmer, wife of Mike Farmer and Mother of Zachary Farmer.
