

Jacob Monroe Lyall

December 30, 1985 - January 16, 2026

Jacob Monroe Lyall, 40, passed away on January 16, 2026, at his home in Clintwood. He was born on December 30, 1985, in Norton and was the son of Andy and Teresa Lyall. Jake was a 2004 graduate of Clintwood High School and a 2005 graduate of Nashville Auto Diesel College. He was a talented auto mechanic and enjoyed using his skills to assist people who may not otherwise have been able to keep their automobiles in good repair. He also worked in construction for several years. Although his illness prevented him from full-time work in the past few years, Jake still enjoyed working with his hands and on vehicles as he was able.

He was preceded in death by his father, Andy, as well as his grandparents, Brady and Ann Lyall, and J.C. and Betty Fletcher. Surviving him are his mother, Teresa, of Clintwood; his brother, Derek Lyall of Abingdon; his two children, Jacob Charles and Mahayla Faith Lyall, of Clintwood; a special uncle, Randy Fletcher (Cathy) of Wise; and a special aunt, Lesia Fletcher, of Clintwood; several cousins and other family members survive him also.

Jake will be laid to rest at the Lyall Family Cemetery on Baker Ridge in Clintwood. A visitation will be held on January 29, 2026, from 6 to 7 PM in the Mullins Funeral Home chapel.
