Jewell was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. For more than forty years, she was a faithful and active member of Skeetrock Community Church, which began as a small gathering in her living room. In her earlier years, she worked as a cosmetologist, a real estate agent, and then opened her own retail business in 1980. She was an epic story teller, loved music, and loved to dance. She even won trophies for her flat-footing and “twist”. She was an avid reader and very intelligent. She kept the roads hot with her best friend, Ellen Stone, and loved opening her atlas to plan her next adventure.

“ From Gallows Road to Marvin Street, from trips to the Grand Canyon to the Maine coastline, Florida and Myrtle Beach. Jewell with her adventurous spirit and love of family was always organizing trips and family reunions. I have the fondest memories as a little girl of Friday poker nights at cousin Gary Joe's to trips to Pamlico Race Track with my Mom Sue to watch the horses run. Aunt Jewell was always beautiful, ready to laugh and tell stories. She welcomed all the family into her home, always kind, gracious and loving. Jewell will always be a shining example of true mountain hospitality. Godspeed, you are missed.
