“ I always remember how Mike share with ours humor , sometimes , and how he to be a happy man ! : us come to Miami to visit some relatives, they cook for him, they let some horse to riding in mornings and some pool for swimming in afternoons and in nights share singing , drinks and guitar! When to say good bye, say us: is my best time, I am happy! Then I too remember how kind are him : first days I live alone in Clintwood he come to mi door and let me a letter and give me my first cellphone and said me: Olga have other for talking with you , call for all this is my number ... bye Mike... Rest In Peace you good things always remember.

“ There’s just to many memories to list, me and Linda always had a time keeping our treasures from Mike and Randy..as you always said to me Mike to be any closer we would have to be brother and sister, yes that’s double first cousins!!

All else I can say is I love you Mike!! Glad I said so in life!!!

S,

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for his family. We so enjoyed his time at Yates Chapel where he would sing songs his grandpa Merdie Boggs had sung years ago. Was a good memory.
