

Joseph Baldwin

April 16, 1951 - January 1, 2026

Joseph Baldwin, age 74, was a lifelong resident of Dickenson County. He was an ordained minister and an accomplished guitar player and singer. He loved to laugh, tell jokes, and stories. Joseph cared deeply for many special pets over the years and greatly enjoyed TV westerns and working out. He was a proud veteran of the US Navy and was employed for twenty-one years in the Dickenson County School System. Preceded in death are grandparents that raised him, Clonas and Lillie Stanley, parents Raymond Baldwin and Mary Stanley, and siblings Kenneth and Ronnie Baldwin Stanley.

Survivors include:

His loving wife of 32 years: Joyce Baldwin

Children: Wendell Baldwin, Daniel Edwards, and Philip Edwards

Two sisters: Margaret Salyers of Florida and Kathy Benson of Ohio

One brother: Dale Webb of Clintwood

Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, January 7, 2026, in the Mullins Funeral Home Chapel from 12:00 pm until 1:00 pm, with a funeral service to begin at 1:00, with clergy Greg Edwards to officiate. Burial will follow in the Dutton Family Cemetery (Wildcat Ridge)

Pallbearers will be Daniel Edwards, Philip Edwards, Talbert Boiling, Wendell Baldwin, and Gary Salyers

Honorary Pallbearers will be Cletus Chester and Danny Edwards

“ I've known Joe since childhood, attending flemingtown school with him and his siblings. He never failed to say hello and he showed up when we put my brother Donnie to rest. I'm saddened to hear of his passing and my prayers to his family and loved ones.
