

Joyce Fletcher

August 27, 1957 - November 18, 2025

Joyce Ann Fletcher was born on August 27, 1957. She went home to be with Jesus on November 18, 2025. She fought so hard in her battle with cancer, but now she is in her new body, free of pain and suffering. She was such a strong lady.

She was of the Christian faith and loved the lord with all her heart. She was an amazing cook/baker and loved to make us quilts, but out of everything she could do, she was the best wife, mother, and nana that we could have ever been blessed with. She was always there to give hugs, tell us she loved us all the time. She loved her family with everything she had in her.

Joyce is preceded in death by her parents, Lucille (Bob) Hoffman, and Ezra Mullins, all of Clintwood, Virginia. Her bonus parents, Cecil and Cathrine Fletcher.

She is survived by her husband, Rick Fletcher of Clintwood, Virginia, two daughters, Jamie (Dustin) Fleming of Clintwood, Jessica (Boomer) Kendrick of Melfa, Virginia. Grandkids Tyler, Cody (Shana), Devon Dotson, and Liyah Fleming of Clintwood, Virginia, and Hadley Kendrick of Melfa, Virginia. Great-grandchildren Khyler, Ian, Piper, and Ezra Dotson of Clintwood, Virginia. Siblings, Shirley (Paul) Fleming, Kathy (Danny) Wampler, Pam (Chad) McPeek, Linda Fleming of Clintwood, Virginia, William (Diane) Mullins, of Abingdon, Virginia, and Randy Mullins. Bonus siblings Jerry (Sharon) Fletcher of Haysi, Virginia, and Ruthann (Ken) Potter of Breaks, Virginia. Several nieces, nephews, and friends were near and dear to her heart.

We would like to thank some special people who helped us take care of her: the staff at Norton, Virginia Cancer Center, and Caris Hospice; such sweet and loving people who were so good to her.

Honorary pallbearers will be Dustin Fleming, Tyler, Cody, Devon Dotson, Boomer Kendrick, Jerry Fletcher, and Wayne Keith.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, November 25, at 11:00 AM at Mullins Funeral Home Chapel, with Clergy, Wayne Keith speaking.

“ I'll really miss her she and I worked closing shifts for RiteAid and she was a beautiful person who worked hard and she'd say I was her sister "from anotherMom" i always have felt she was my closest friend and I will miss her forever 💔 I am heartbroken. She was full of spirit and loved her daughters. Until I can see you again. Rest my beautiful sweet friend.

“ Mom had a strength that didn't need announcing. Her strength was mountain-forged, quiet, and steady. She loved in the small, meaningful ways like feeding birds and squirrels outside her window, stopping to photograph moments most others would rush past, and filling the house with the scent of cinnamon-apples just because it made her feel at home. She taught me resilience without ever giving a speech about it, she simply lived it.

I was with her in her last hours, holding her as she slipped into peace. I'll carry that moment with me for the rest of my life. She left this world the same way she moved through it. Softly, bravely, and with love all around her.

I miss you, Mom. You are part of everything I create and everything I become. I'll keep your light with me, always.

Joyce always had a beautiful smile that could make anyone's day. I'd see her in Rite Aid when she worked there and growing up id go to her house with her niece my best friend Angie I'm so sorry Shirley I knew how close you were to her. And Angie I'm also sorry if there's anything I can do don't hesitate to look me up. RIP Joyce you will be sadly missed by family and friends but your in God's hands now no more suffering and no more pain.
