“Tracy, We were extremely saddened and our hearts broken to hear that JR had passed. We enjoyed all of the times that we were able to spend with the two of you and the friendship we shared. We will miss JR and we are so thankful that he was part of our lives. What a great witness and testimony JR gave for the Lord. Heaven has truly gained an angel. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers now and in the days to come. With much love,”

“I am so sorry to hear of Jr.'s passing. It has been many years since I last saw him, but I will always remember his stopping by my parent's house to pay his respects when my father passed. He shared at that time about his being saved and he was so excited about the Lord! I know your hearts are breaking and that you will miss him terribly. My prayers are with you.”

“I don't know where to start except to say my life has been blessed because of the love and friendship with Jr! He was truly a gift from God, a gift that I am so gonna miss! But Heaven is rejoicing that such a beautiful voice is now part of the Heavenly Choir. I love you Traci and my heart breaks for you, his sisters and the rest of his family! There is comfort in knowing that we will be together again. My heart felt condolences today and always!”

“Please accept my saddest feelings with a heavy heart and an offering of condolences and prayers to Tracy and the rest of the family as they prepare to go through the grief that I am sure has already set in. I know Jr fought a courageous battle with a lot of courage and even more faith. His faith keep him going, plus the support of his family and many, many friends and even though he may not have always felt like it, he welcomed them in to see him. He loved his company and thought dearly of them. Jr never met a stranger or at least not for long. Now he will be in the company of his mother Odell and father Everett and more of the family that has already passed, but Jr will find them and love them as always and in return, they will love him. I love you JR and will forever. Your my hero and cuz and you will be greatly missed.”

“There are so many memories that come to our minds with 'JR' we know his entire family and know what a wonderful group of people that this family makes, thanks to wonderful parents and steadfast Christian upbringing and kind and good deeds for others that describe what they are to their community and JR never walked past any good deed or another and did not jump right in for anyone...there is no way that anything will be normal without him with Gods help and a lot of prayer we all will just learn to get by....JR had so many wonderful parts of his personality and character they cant be all mentioned....he was a clothes horse and always looked 'spiffy'...he loved all children...he loved his family unconditionally....he loved his friends unconditionally...he simply just wanted to know what made you happy so he could contribute to that in your life....he was a devout Christian and spread the word of the Lord everywhere he went and with every action....God Bless his strong and loving family and please send prayers to all of them so that eventually the loss of 'JR' will lay a little lighter on their hearts.”
