“ As young boys, Buck, Glenn and I were as "thick as thieves" ...every visit on Sunday evenings to our grandparents on Caney Creek seemed a real life adventure straight out of Huck Finn tale...with the river, fish, and reptiles..rest in peace

“ I worked with Bucky a Long time ago! He was a lot of fun to be around, and a good friend! We also rode together to work! I run into him in town one day, he said he had been snake hunting down in the mountain! He got a sack out of his jeep and showed me three copperheads! He sure will be missed! Bobby and Janet Hays! So heart broken over Bucks passing but I rejoice to know that he accepted Christ as his Savior months before he passed away. We prayed together when I talked on the phone. I know mother rejoiced when she saw him in Heaven.

Amen Patsy, that's so good to know that his soul is safe. Bucky was easy to know and work with. God bless the family.
